Dear AIAM Student and Prospective Student:

I am pleased to share some exciting news regarding the future of our institution. AIAM has entered into an agreement to be acquired by Wehrhan & Wehrhan. This partnership is a strategic step forward that preserves our 32-year legacy while introducing new resources to support your success.

Continuity for Your Education and What This Means for You

Our primary commitment is to you and your academic journey. We want to emphasize that:

- Our Identity Remains: We will continue to operate as AIAM.
- Your Path to Graduation: Academic progress, programs, and graduation timelines will not be affected.
- Operational Stability: We do not anticipate significant changes to our mission, to student services, financial aid, or day-to-day operations.
- Familiar Faces: Our faculty and staff will remain in place, ensuring your education continues without interruption.

About Wehrhan & Wehrhan

- Family-led Ohio education organization: Preparing students for licensure and employment in practical nursing and allied health since 2009.
- Student-first, career-focused approach: To date, their practical nursing graduates have a 100% NCLEX pass rate.
- Committed to investing in AIAM's students, faculty: AIAM's next chapter builds directly on the reputation we have earned over three decades.
- Rinse and Repeat: By combining AIAM's and Wehrhan & Wehrhan's expertise and resources, the transition creates a pathway for continued growth, innovation, and service to students, employers, and to our communities.

Important Regulatory Notice

In compliance with U.S. Department of Education requirements, we are notifying all students and prospective students of this pending change in ownership and control. Pending completion of necessary regulatory approvals, Wehrhan & Wehrhan is expected to assume full ownership on or after December 1, 2026.

We're transforming healthcare.

Looking Ahead

While change is never easy, we are excited about the opportunities this transition creates for our students and the institution. The shared commitment of AIAM and Wehrhan & Wehrhan to quality education provides a strong foundation for future success. We are a strong family of healers and healthcare workers making a difference in many lives and our communities. Helen and I cannot be prouder of you and of our programs. This venture strengthens us.

As we move through this process, we are committed to communicating openly, providing timely updates, and ensuring that students and employees remain informed every step of the way. We are grateful for the support and dedication of our community and look forward to building the next chapter together.

In health,

Diane
